Friday night "gatherings" of the boys at Raju's house.

What was your favorite class in high school?

Photography and Art.

What was your least favorite class in high school?

Math.

Who was your favorite teacher in high school?

Alice Hutchinson.

Who was your least favorite teacher in high school?

That's difficult, I liked all of my teachers. Mr. Priest yelled at me once... so maybe him?

What did you do the first year after high school? (i.e. college, military, marriage, job, etc.):

Dropped out of college after 2 or 3 terms and got a job as a Graphic Designer.

Can you give us a summary of your life since high school?

2-3 terms of college, dropped out and started my career in graphic design. Married my high school sweetheart, grew up VERY fast with 3 kids. Was very focused on my career for too many years (to make up for no college degree). Got divorced 15 years ago. Danielle and I are still close friends and very supportive of each other. I can't think of anyone I would rather be a co-parent with. Mostly single since then and loving my life. Great kids, great friends, great job...truly blessed. I'm incredibly happy and wouldn't change a thing.

Did you get married?

Yes. I married Danielle Smith.

Do you have any children?

Yes. 3 children (Hayden – 25, Sirisha – 22 and Ashton – 16).

Do you have any grandchildren?

No!

What is your current occupation?

Advertising Agency Vice President.

Did you follow the career path you wanted?

Yes.

What is your super power?

Cooking.

If you had to describe yourself in three words, what would they be?

Happy. Positive. Caring.

What age and/or situation first made you feel like an adult?

Age 23 - the birth of my first son.

How are you different from your high school self?

No longer shy. Much more confident, outgoing, social, driven and focused. Oh, and I weigh a LOT more! ;)

How are you the same as your high school self?

Still caring and thoughtful. Put others before myself. Same quirky sense of humor/like making people laugh.

If you had the chance, what would you want to say to your high school self?

Take more risks and lay off the Taco Bell.

What about your senior year (if anything) would you do differently?

I would have come out of my shell sooner.

What is something you want to be remembered for?

Being a nice guy who is always there for you.

What is something you've done in your life that most of your high school class would never have expected from you?

Flew by myself to India at the age of 28 to bring our adopted daughter home.

What are you most proud of in your life so far?

My children.

What was your first "OMG, I'm old!" symptom?

Grey hairs in my beard.

What do you hope to experience in the next 30 years?

Watching my children continue to grow into amazing adults and grandchildren.

What do you miss most about 1990?

Lack of responsibility and my Mustang.

Were you at the 10-year Reunion? the 20-year?

10-year: I was in India meeting our adopted daughter.

20-year: hell yeah!

Do you plan to be at the 30-year?

Hell yeah!

Do you still have your yearbook(s)?

Sadly no. Lost them to water damage.

Are you a Mac or PC person?

Mac.

Denny's or Shari's?

Shari's.

If you could go back and relive your senior year, would you?

Yes, I loved my senior year.

Did you have a job during high school? If so, where and what were your tasks?

Yes. I worked at Jumbo Reilly's Steakhouse from the age of 14 to 19.

Started as a dish washer, then busboy, then host and then waiter.

Aside from your name, can I publish any or all of this contact info in the book? (If not, that's OK!)

Yes, all contact info.

When asking for photos, I requested at least two: one from high school plus a more recent photo. I also mentioned that additional photos were welcome and these are the images that Glenn chose to send—all grouped under the following title:

Good times, with good friends, over the years!!!
